

Leave Policy

Issue #

2

Effective From

September 1, 2024

Objective:

The objective of the Leave Policy is to give provision to the employees to balance their personal as well as professional life.

Purpose:

The purpose of leave policy for employees is to lay guidelines regarding when to avail leave and the process to take leave with pay, leave without pay, Leave of absence policy and so on.

Eligibility:

The Leave policy is applicable to all the regular employees of the company.

Guidelines for Leave Policy:

- All leave record of the employees shall be maintained in MiHCM software.
- All leaves should be applied MiHCM software before proceeding on leave. In case of emergency when leave cannot be applied in advance, telephonic / text, intimation to the immediate reporting manager or HR department should be done.
- Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Any leave can be granted or refused depending upon the business demands.
- The calendar year for leave is from July to June. Leaves cannot be carried forward to next year.
- Employees will be eligible for Sick and Casual Leave only after completion of probationary period. On confirmation, Sick and Casual leave (s) will be credited to employees account as per the date of confirmation (Pro-rate).
- Employees will be eligible for Annual Leave after 1 year of services.
- Employees joining during course of year shall be subject to receive Leave (s) on pro-rata basis in their leave account.
- Employee may apply for leave depending upon their leave balance availability on MiHCM software.
- An employee shall not proceed on leave until or unless Head of department, Reporting Manager and Human Resources Department have approved leave.
- If an employee is absent continuously for 3 days beyond sanctioned leave with no information, in this case management discretion applies.
- Weekends and any holiday lying between the sanctioned leave periods will be excluded.
- Leave without approval will be considered as leave without pay.
- In case of planned leave it is mandatory for employee to apply for leave in advance.
- Leave of absence from work without proper approval will call for disciplinary action.

Leave Policy

Issue #

2

Effective From

September 1, 2024

Sick Leave

- Employees are entitled to 8 days of sick leave. If an employee has consumed three or more days of sick leave, you may avail of them with the backing of a medical certificate.
- Sick leave is paid leave.

Casual Leave

- Casual leave is granted to employees upon contingent situations. Employees are entitled to 8 days of fully paid leaves.
- Maximum of 2 casual leave can be availed at one time.
- If an employee takes casual leaves from Friday to Monday that will be considered as in sandwich and leave will be deducted from your casual leave. In case of unavailability of CL, salary will be deducted accordingly.

Annual Leaves

- Every employee who has completed 1 Year of continuous service shall be entitled to 14 days of annual leaves.
- Annual leaves can be consumed as planned leaves. Employee will share their annual leave plan in the start of 1st quarter, which will be approved by Department Head and Human Resources Department.
- In case of any critical circumstances i.e. accident, illness etc., employee can avail their annual leaves. Hence, in that scenario annual leave plan will be obsolete.

Maternity Leave

- All confirmed female employees shall be entitled for Maternity leave, with full pay for a period of continuous 90 days (excluding national holidays) for each pregnancy.
- Employees are entitled to maternity leave upon the completion of probation.

Paternity Leave

- All confirmed male employees are eligible for paternity leave.
- A maximum of 3 days of paternity leave can be availed by an employee.
- The paternity leave must be taken within 10 days of child birth, failing which the leaves will lapse.

Pilgrimage Leave

- In order to perform Umrah, Hajj or Ziyaraat, every employee who has completed 1 Year of continuous service shall be entitled to 14 days of pilgrimage leaves.

Leave Policy

Issue #

2

Effective From

September 1, 2024

- Pilgrimage leaves can be availed once in during two years of services.

Special Leave /Iddat Leave

- In case of demise of a female employee's spouse, leave of absence is sanctioned up to a maximum of 130 days (4 months and 10 days), which will also fulfill the religious requirements of the period of Iddat.
- In case of demise of a male employee's spouse, leave of absence of up to 10 days may be allowed to the employee in order to allow him sufficient time to adjust to the tragic loss and to make necessary arrangements in the household for children and other dependents. However, this leave can be applied for only when all other available leave entitlements have been exhausted.

Leave calculation on Separation

In case employee resigned or terminated from the services within the calendar year of leave (s) July to June, so the leave will be calculated on pro-rata basis and excess consumption of leave (s) will be deducted by the employer upon the approval of management from the Full & Final Settlement.

Process for Leave

- Leave (s) applied by an employee on ESS.
- For approval the leave, notification will reach the immediate reporting manager.
- Once approved, approval notification will reach to HR.
- HR will approve the leave (s) and approval notification will reach to employee.
- Leaves will be deducted from leave balance from the employees account and latest balance updated on ESS.
- All leaves shall be process as per Policy.
- In case of probationary period, employee absence shall be treated as LWOP.
- In case of wedding or accidental / hospitalization leaves during probationary period management discretion for Advance PL shall be taken, upon HOD recommendation only.
- Employee can avail their entitled leaves (PL/CL/SL).
- The balance of leaves shall not be carried forward to the next year.
- Those who doesn't submit their leaves during the SOP time period shall be treat as LWOP (Reimbursement option is available till one month ONLY).
- Annual Leaves plans will share by an employee in start of 1st quarter of every New Year which needs to be submitted to HR.

Revision of the policy

The company reserves the right to revise, modify any or all clauses of this policy depending upon demand of business.